April Pendergrass

April Pendergrass played fastpitch softball for Hamilton High School from 1991 to 1994. April was a standout catcher and a clutch hitter. In 1992, she helped guide Hamilton High to the GMC Championship. Her Senior year (1994) she was named the team's Most Valuable Player after batting a league leading .533 average, 33 RBI's and a .643 slugging percentage. That same year, she was named Best Defensive Player and 1st Team All GMC. April was granted a full softball scholarship to Lincoln Memorial University. April continued her softball career playing slowpitch softball for Cooper Computers, Cap & Son, Case Trucking, Jeff Pohlman's, Rowdies and Princeton Pike Church. In 2005, April helped Cooper Computers come in 2nd in the City and 3rd in 2006. In 2000, while playing for her Dad's team, Cap & Son, she helped her team win the league championship. April's talent was good enough that she could be honored today for both fastpitch and slowpitch.
