

Danny Adams

Danny was the premiere lead-off hitter, playing center field, right field, and first base. He played for many well known teams in Butler County and the Cincinnati area, including: Jake Sweeney, Blue Moon, Team Transport, Case Trucking, Tiny Town Pizza, Alpine Mortgage, Bengel Trucking, Cooper Sports, Shore Chiropractic, Days Estates and Full Gospel.

Danny was a member of 16 City Series titles, 8 with international teams and 8 City Church titles. In 2002, he helped Full Gospel win an NSA Church National Championship and was named to the All-Tournament team. He states that his most prestigious award was helping Full Gospel in 2003 win the ASA "A" National Championship, where he was named the Most Valuable Player of the tournament, going 27 for 29 at the plate.

2021 has been a good year for Danny, besides being inducted into the Hall of Fame, he was named the #1 sales agent for AT & T's In-Home Solutions Department, he became a first time grandpa, and was a member of the West Side Little League coaching staff that won the Tom Seaver Championship and were the Little League World Series runners-up at Williamsport, PA.

Danny Adams